MRS. MATTHEW S. QUAY.

Wife of the Great Republican Leader Adds Her Testimony to That of Thousands of Others for Paine's Celery Compound.

Among the testimonials received this week by the proprietors of that greatest of all remedies, Paine's celery compound, are found many, as usual, from families of national reputation.

One of these is the following sincere statement that bears the signature of Agnes B. Quay, the wife of the Hon. Matthew S. Quay, United States Senator, whom Pennsylvania so urgently named for the Presidency at St. Louis:

"WASHINGTON, May 15, 1896.
"MESSRS. WELLS & RICHARDSON,
Burlington, Vt.

"Dear Sirs:—My daughter and I have been using your Paine's Celery Compound this spring with most beneficial results. "Those in an over fatigued condition will find it a gentle stimulant, and an excellent tonic, and I add my testimony to others without reluctance."

The relative merits and efficiency of Paine's celery compound in making people well is clearly shown in the character of the people who today rely on it to cure insomnia, nervous debility, persistent headaches and a rundown condition.

It is the power of rapid repair of the tissues that makes Paine's celery compound the great saver of life that it is. It brings just the needed nutriment to the distracted nerve tissues all over the body and increases the volume of healthy blood so that a breaking down of some vital part is averted. While taking Paine's celery compound there is a general building up of the deep-lying tissues all over the body, and a throwing off of unsound elements that clog and interfere with its healthy activity.

The story of the discovery and unparalled success of Paine's celery compound is the story of a high purpose, steadfastly followed; the reward for the life-long study of the nervous system in health and disease. Prof. Edward E. Phelps' discovery in the laboratory of the Dartmouth Medical School proved a monumental work in the art of dealing successfully with many diseases that were up to that time held to be obstinate of cure. Today rheumatism and neuralgia, heart palpitation and nervous dyspepsia are taken in hand by Paine's celery compound with the absolute assurance of freeing the system of them entirely.

In this greatest of all remedies there is hope for every person distressed by symptoms of dyspepsia, impure blood, failing vigor or low nervous condition.

Bangor Lost in Afternoon.

[Special despatch to Whig and Courier.]

Brockton, Mass., Sept. 7. The afternoon game was played before an immense crowd today and was a brilliant exhibition. Weithoff wasn't the terror he usually is for the Brocktons and the latter gave a fine exhibition of hard and timely batting. Shea did especially strong stick work, with Nadeau following. Both teams fielded beautifully, nearly every man being applauded for fine work. Magee did very skillful and steady pitching. Attendance, 3,000.

ARKANSAS ELECTION.

Meagre Returns Received of the Vote of Monday.

Large Increase in Vote---Populists Voted Democratic Ticket.

Republican Vote Shows Gain--Several Clashes Occurred.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 7. Reports from various points throughout Arkansas state that the weather to-day was cool and pleasant. Meagre returns from the State election up to noon indicated a slight increase in the vote of two years ago was being made.

Very Large Vote Polled.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 7. The election held in this State to-day was for all State, judicial and county officers, including two-thirds of the legislature, which will elect a successor to U. S. Senator Jas. K. Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee. Mr. Jones has no opposition within his party and his re-election is an assured fact. As far as heard from the election throughout the State passed off quietly and an unusually large vote was polled.

The question of licensing the saloons was the principal issue in the majority of the counties. Here in Little Rock it was the issue of the day. The Prohibitionists, or anti-license advocates, were defeated by a large majority. The Democrats and Republicans had full tickets in the field, while the Populists and Prohibitionists nominated candidates for governor only.

Republican returns received in this city up to 9 indicate that the vote will exceed 160,000, an increase of 24,000 over 1894.

At the Democratic headquarters the election of Col. Dan W. Jones, Democratic candidate for governor, is claimed by 45,000 plurality.

Chairman Cooper, of the Republican State committee, disputes the claim, basing his estimates upon reports received late this evening. He says a large percentage of the increased vote was polled by negroes. Of 203,000 poll tax receipts in this State, 45,000 are held by negroes, 15,000 more than were paid by the negroes two years ago.

A Later Dispatch.

Official returns from the following counties late tonight give Daniel W. Jones' majorities as follows: Miller (Texarkana) 500; Phillips (Helena) 1,100; Woodruff, 1,900 of a total vote of 3,500; Franklin 800; Lafayette 500; Sharp 1,700.

If these majorities are kept up throughout the State Jones and the entire Democratic ticket will receive 60,000 majority.

The Populists scratched Files, their candidate for governor, and voted almost solidly for Jones, as did many sound money Democrats who voted at all.

The Prohibition vote throughout the State shows a marked decrease.

Several clashes occurred in the doubtful counties between Democrats and Populists, notably at Clinton. Clinton is 25 miles from the nearest telegraph station and it is impossible to learn full particulars.

Men Badly and Perhaps Fatally Burned.

Worcester, Mass., Sept. 7. John Scanlon, James Shea and James Daly, employed at the Rice & Griffin sash and blind shop in this city, were badly and perhaps fatally burned this afternoon by blazing sawdust.

Scanlon and Daly were shoveling the tinder-like material into the furnace in the boiler room and Daly was in a small box-like room on the fourth floor shoveling the dust down a chute to the men below. A back draft caused the ignition of the sawdust as the men were shoveling it and quick as a flash they were surrounded with flames. Almost as suddenly the blaze flashed up the chute so that Daly at the top of it was almost as badly burned as the men below.

The fire department was called and the fire was readily extinguished. The men are at the hospital.

State Election, Monday, Sept. 14.

For Assignment of Speakers See Third Page.

Inconsistency of Silver Men.

The campaign now approaching its end in this State has indeed been educational in character. The arguments of the Republicans have been clear, logical and earnest appeals to the common sense of the people. The remarks of the opposition on the other hand have been incendiary in character, entirely devoid of anything like sound reasoning and only calculated to appeal to prejudice. Herr Most would make a ideal stump speaker for the Bryanites. This is no exaggeration. Most never gave voice to more incendiary or ridiculous statements than have appeared in the Commercial day after day. (That paper does not pretend to discuss any of the questions now pending in this campaign. It resorts to deliberate misrepresentation, ignores corrections when the utter falsity of some of its assertions is demonstrated by contradictory statements that have appeared in its own columns, and practically gives notice that it proposes to win a few votes for free silver is there is any force in unlimited falsehood.

Let any man who has gone to one of the silver rallies stop and recall anything in the nature of positive information he has heard concerning the benefits to come from free coinage of silver. He will hear any quantity of assertions with no more substantial basis than the imagination of the speaker, but not one word of information to enlighten him. People went to hear George Fred Williams, who is put forth as the one particular bright star in the silver galaxy, but they came away disappointed. A prominent Democrat said to the writer that he attended the Williams meeting thinking to hear the silver argument, but he was no wiser when he came away from the hall than he was when he entered it concerning any real ground of appeal to the people.

It is the same with all of the speakers now perambulating over this State in the interest of the free coinage campaign. They all contradict themselves. In one breath they tell you that money must be cheaper in order that it may get into the hands of the people, and in the next declare that under free coinage silver will at once stand at par with gold, the effect of which would be, of course, to make the silver dollar just as hard to get as the dollar of which they complain to-day. Another favorite argument, and one that is decidedly amusing, is that the present purchasing power of the dollar is too great. In other words they invite the workingman to vote the silver ticket on the ground that the wages he receives for his labor buy more than they ought, a crime charged up to the gold standard. This is one of the principal arguments put forth by the silver advocates. If there is a laboring man in Bangor, in Maine, or throughout the country, who is to-day finding fault because he can purchase too many of the necessaries of life with his week's wages, we have yet to hear of that individual. We do not hear anything now about the poor man's blanket, or the increased price of the wool in a suit of clothes, the price of salt, or that farmers do not need protection against the competition of Canada because cheap food is a blessing to the poor people, arguments so generally heard four years ago. All this is changed and the now great panacea for the ills of the country is cheap money and higher prices. What do the laboring men think about it?

It will be seen that in this argument the wage earner has been abandoned as it is addressed entirely to the farmer whose vote it is hoped to catch. But the intelligent farmers cannot be caught with that kind of bait. The farmers were not complaining of prices in 1892, although the money standard was the same then as now. Why? Simply because they had the best market in the world open to them, the home market. The wage earners were prosperous and the products of the farm found a ready market. Suppose we get this cheaper money and prices advance, will it help the farmer? He will have to pay more for everything he buys. There has never been a time when he could exchange the products of the farm for so many of the necessaries of life as he can to-day. He might get a higher price for his produce, but he would have to pay as high or a higher percentage of increase for the goods he desired to take home, and in addition would cripple his best customer, the wage earners of the country.

The whole silver doctrine is simply a mass of inconsistent absurdities. The people of Vermont have so declared and the people of Maine are only waiting for the opportunity.

Bryan a Free Trader.

The Philadelphia North American says: It is a fact to which not much attention has yet been given, but which is [illegible] own. They are so still. Bryan is a free trader, who has the courage of his convictions. Extreme in everything, he is extreme in that. He does not believe in compromises, or concessions, or any kind of half way measures. By free trade he understands the English system, under which the public revenues are, for the most part, derived from import duties imposed upon a few commodities of great and general consumption, while the great mass of manufactured articles are admitted free.

Bryan's idea of amending the Wilson tariff would be to eliminate from it the small measure of protection which it embodies, and to make up the deficit in the national income by placing heavy duties upon commodities which either cannot be produced here at all or cannot be produced in such quantities to come anything near supplying the popular demand, upon such commodities, for example, as sugar, coffee and tea. If he could have his way, the great manufacturing industries of the country, to whose development so large a part of the wonderful prosperity of the United States from 1879 to 1892 was due, would be exposed, unprotected, to the unequal competition of the old world, with its low priced labor and its concentrated capital. Thus the election of Bryan and Sewall would mean a further movement along the lines laid down in the Wilson tariff, not as it was amended in the Senate, but as it left the committee of Ways and Means, and what that would mean no manufacturer, nor any man or woman of the thousands to whom manufacturing gives employment, need to be told.

For it need not be supposed that free traders of the class to which Mr. Bryan belongs are at all disconcerted by the doleful and disastrous experiences through which the party has passed since November, 1892. They refuse to recognize the terrible failure of the free-trade experiment. Sometimes they say that there really hasn't been any failure, but that we have all been happy and prosperous without knowing it. At other times they declare the trouble with the Wilson bill to have been that it didn't go far enough, that it wasn't sufficiently radical; that it halted too much between two opinions and then they contend that the remedy is to be found in turning the Wilson bill into a genuine free-trade measure. Some, again, insist that the unsatisfactory status of our currency has been the source of all our difficulties. But none of the free-trade Democrats are willing to admit that the tariff enacted by the fifty-third Congress has been shown by its operation to have been a monumental blunder, and while the platform upon which Bryan and Sewall are standing does not go as far in its denunciation of protection as the platform of 1892, it reiterates the favorite Democratic watchword about a tariff for revenue only.

Now if there is one thing certain in the political situation to-day, it is that a large majority of the American people throughout the country are disgusted with the way in which the Wilson tariff bill has worked, and are anxious to secure its radical amendment, in accordance with the teachings of a distressing, but illuminative experience. They may have their doubts, some of them, about the merits of the silver question, but they have no doubt at all that the Wilson tariff is a failure and a fraud.

Certain Opinions.

The New York Tribune says: Mr. Henry Watterson, who knows Kentucky at least as well as any other man, says of that State: "The Palmer-Buckner "ticket will poll an enormous vote in "Kentucky. It would not surprise me "if it polled more votes than either "Bryan and Sewall or Bryan and Watson." The same thought was suggested by the Tribune the morning after the nomination. With Secretary Carlisle openly and heartily approving the ticket, and almost every Democratic paper of influence in that State opposing Bryan, the chance of getting a larger vote there for Bryan than for two born Kentuckians, Palmer and Buckner, would seem not very bright.

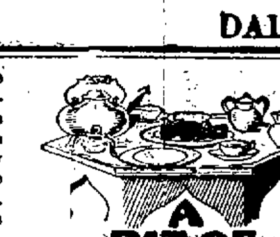

Mr. Watterson adds of the new ticket: "It ought to poll a great vote in Illinois, "where Senator Palmer has always held "a commanding position, and where "Buckner, being an old property-owner "in Chicago, is very well known and "very popular." He mentions that both are old men, adding: "Neither is as old "as Gortchakoff, when he held the destinies of Russia in his hands, or as "Gladstone when he was last Prime Minister of Great Britain." What Mr. Watterson says of other States, of which he has less personal knowledge, does not accord so well with known facts, but his judgment about Kentucky and Illinois is entitled to high respect.

Looking back to the recent disclosures of the Populist plan of campaign, it will be remembered that nothing was claimed east of Indiana, but every Southern State except Maryland and Delaware, and everything west of the Mississippi except Iowa and Minnesota, making 202 electoral votes, so that either Illinois or the combination of Indiana and Michigan was needed to elect. With Illinois out of the question, Indiana and Minnesota would not suffice, and with Kentucky out of the question, Indiana and Michigan would not. With Palmer and Buckner in the field, neither Indiana nor Michigan offers much hope. Kentucky is for the Populist combination so absolutely necessary State.

Loss there is loss everywhere. McKinley can win in many ways without it; with West Virginia, for example, which the best informed men of the State think he is certain to carry; with any of the Southern States, of which several are doubtful; with Missouri, which ex-Governor Francis, now Secretary of the Interior, will do much to carry against Bryan; with Kansas, which the Populist agitator, Mrs. Lease, now regards as likely to be driven from Bryan by the support of Hoke Smith; with Nebraska, which Secretary Morton will turn against Bryan to the extent of his ability, and whose regular Democratic delegation was carried against Bryan, he having entered the Chicago convention as a contesting delegate; or with either two of the Pacific States, which are all believed likely to vote for McKinley.

Republicans Aroused.

Hon. Charles Emory Smith, of Philadelphia, who has been stumping Maine, was in New York Thursday. When asked about the situation in this State he said: "I found the Republicans in excellent fighting trim and predict a big majority. After the Maine election I believe we shall have the Bryanites on the run everywhere. My inquiries show that there is not by any means that silver sentiment among the farmers and workingmen that the agitators talk about so much. I know that there have been numerous conversions from the silver ranks to the sound money cause. I know of none going the other way."

THE SEAL FISHERIES.

Pelagic or Ocean Fishing Playing Havoc with Herds.

Opinion of Prof. Jordan, President of Stanford University.

San Francisco, Cala., Sept. 7.—The steamship Homer has arrived from Unalaska, having on board the 30,000 seal skins alloted by the government to the North American Commercial Co. for the present season. Among the passengers was Mr. J. Stanley Brown superintendent of the North American Commercial Co., and formerly private secretary to the late President James A. Garfield. Mr. Brown in an interview with the United Associated Presses last night said:

"The catch of the sealing fleet this season proves to be light. It is doubtful if it will average four hundred skins a vessel or a total of less than thirty hundred skins. Sealers report seals scarcer than ever before, and there is no pretense made to conceal the fact that the herds have about disappeared. Captain Hooper in charge of the Behring sea patrol is conducting an efficient supervision over the sealing grounds to prevent depredations. Thus far six seizures have been made of schooners for pelagic fishing.

"The Behring sea mixed commission of Americans, Canadians and British under the leadership of President Jordan of Stanford university, arrived at the Pribyloffs on July 6th. It is the finest body of men that could have possibly been gathered together for such scientific investigation with the great commercial and international questions attached to it. The work of the commission has been most thorough and the results attained are likely to be the most satisfactory of any work thus far done in the way of investigating the present condition of seal life, and to make recommendations or suggest conditions in the protective regulations now in force.

"The commission will not cease its investigations until about the middle of September, or the first of October, when the dead pups resulting from shooting of the mothers at sea will have been counted. Dr. Stenegar, of Washington D. C., spent the early part of the season on the Pribyloffs, and then proceeded with Capt. Morse to Commander Islands. Bennet Hamilton, the London lawyer, had already proceeded to the Commander Islands, thence to Japan and will arrive in San Francisco some time this month.

"On Aug. 15th, Dr. Jordan and Prof. Thomson of Dundee also started for Commander Islands on the British warship Satellite, leaving Dr. Lucas and Secretary Clarke to continue the work of the Pribyloffs. Dr. Jordan has probably returned to Alaska by this date. He will leave for San Francisco Sept. 10th, but some of the party will remain at St. George Island to complete the work of the commission. The Albatross should arrive in San Francisco during the present month by way of Honolulu."

Statement from Member of United States Fish Commission.

San Francisco, Sept. 7. C. H. Townsend, a member of the United States Fish Commission, returned from Unalaska last evening. Speaking of the work accomplished by the mixed commission and the condition of the seal herds, Mr. Townsend said: "Dr. Jordan, the leader of the joint commission, asked me to say to any newspaper man that he knows of no other cause so potent in the destruction of the great seal herd as pelagic, or ocean sealing. This year there are seventy vessels in Behring Sea, but they will not get more than 30,000 seals. They are bound to make a light catch simply because there are not seals enough. The rookeries look bad and pups are already beginning to die because their mothers have been killed while outside the 60 mile limit hunting fish."

Organized Conspiracy to Rob Silk Manufacturers.

New York, Sept 7.—A Tribune special from Patterson, N. J., says: Extensive robberies in silk mills have just been discovered here and sensational developments are expected to result. Silk manufacturers say they have discovered an organized conspiracy under which they have been systematically fleeced by a gang of swindlers holding places of trust in their establishments. Pieces of broad silk, it is charged, have been stolen, private marks destroyed and the goods sold by peddlers in northern New Jersey counties. This practice and the fact that silks were sold at prices defying competition caused an investigation.

It was found that not only had goods been stolen of the finished product but raw silk had been taken away in small packages, involving a fatal loss of several thousand dollars, divided among half a dozen mills. The full details have not been made public, as it is said that the persons implicated are highly connected, and that in two cases at least relatives have agreed to make good the amount of the thefts.

The system adopted has not been fully learned, but several persons have been suspended from places of responsibility with a possible prospect of criminal prosecution. The operations of the swindlers date back only to last June. It is definitely known that silk valued at from $1,000 to $1,500 has been stolen from the Pioneer Silk Co. Part of this stolen silk was sold, according to the statement of a mill superintendent, to dress makers living in the city, who should have known that the goods could not have been placed honestly on the market at that price.

MORE FIGHTING TALK.

Sharkey Thinks He Can Whip Corbett.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 7.—Thomas Sharkey, the "sailor pugilist" who was matched to fight James J. Corbett, when questioned yesterday morning concerning the time the fight would take place said: "I can't say just at present but certainly it is not more than three months off. I think I will whip Corbett without the slightest trouble. He lost his head completely in that fight with me. I must say I don't think he is the fighter he once was. He has deteriorated a great deal and I don't think he can last over six fast rounds to save his life."

"What I want to do is to fight," said Sharkey, "and when I do fight and win the championship I will fight twice a year to defend the title. There will be no jawing from me, and any man with a fair reputation and $10,000 backing can get a match with me. I mean just what I say."

The notes said that love and despair were responsible for the tragedy.

A THRIFTLESS GENIUS

The Hand to Mouth Existence That Was Led by Leigh Hunt.

Leigh Hunt had no sense either of time or of money—a grave fault, perhaps an unpardonable vice, in a man who had a wife and children depending upon him As long as he lived he was thriftless and needy, a lender and a borrower, so generous that he could never afford to be just, bringing upon those whom he loved sincerely a constant burden of debt and care. How reprehensible this was he seems never to have felt, though he blames himself freely and light heartedly, and if the reader of his autobiography is disposed to feel sorry for Mrs. Hunt it is not because her husband sets him the example. This was Leigh Hunt's one vice, never amended nor actively repented of. Yet he had had his warning It is pathetic to compare with each other the two following passages and to see how clearly Leigh Hunt foresaw his danger and how incapable he proved of escaping it

"I have seen " he writes in 1808, "so much of the irritabilities, or rather the miseries, accruing from want of a suitable income, and the best woman of her time was so worried and finally worn out with the early negligence of others in this respect that if ever I was determined in anything it is to be perfectly clear of the world and ready to meet the exigencies of a married life before I do marry, for I will not see a wife who loves me and is the comfort of my existence afraid to speak to me of money matters. She shall never tremble to hear a knock at the door or to meet a quarter day "

And in 1832

"I never hear a knock at the door * * * but I think somebody is coming to take me away from my family. Last Friday I was sitting down to dinner * * * when I was called away by a man who brought an execution into my house for 40 shillings."—Temple Bar.

How the Air Is Purified.

Motion, mechanical and molecular, the great law of the universe, is first to be considered as a natural method for the purification of the atmosphere. Its power as a purifier of the air is shown mechanically in the flow of rivers and in the ocean currents. Molecularly it serves the same purpose in the form of heat, light and electricity.

Largest Procession Ever Seen in Boston on Similar Occasion.

VISITS NIAGARA

Li Hung Chang Much Impressed with View from Canadian Side

Niagara Falls N Y Sept 17 Li Hung Chang was up bright and early this morning feeling well though he passed a very restless night the noise of the falls disturbing him He had breakfast at 7 30 consisting of fried fish rice duck eggs and a cup of some Chinese liquid mixture all prepared by his own cooks

The day broke fine and clear and a change in the programme was made Instead of waiting for the special train the viceroy accompanied by Sir Henry Joly Sir A C Parmlee and his interpreters took carriages at nine o'clock and drove to the Canadian side for a trip through the Canadian Park and Dufferin Islands It was evidently much more impressed with the view of the falls from the Canadian side and so expressed himself He said it was magnificent and sublime The remainder of his suite left in the special train about 9 07

The earl departed for Toronto from the Canadian side about 10 30

This morning for the first time Li seemed to realize the risk which he ran yesterday when he struck the rapidly revolving dynamo in the power house with a stick, the stick being knocked from his hand with terrific force That he ran a big risk of serious injury he now appreciates His interpreter says it was probably his curiosity that prompted him to the act

OUTLOOK IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Handsome Plurality Claimed for McKinley and Hobart.

Washington, D C, Sept. 7 Hon D. L. Russell, the Republican candidate for Governor of North Carolina, who is in this city, when asked about the political situation in his State, said last night

"I am very confident that the Republicans will carry North Carolina next November for McKinley and Hobart Of my own prospects I prefer not to speak The Republicans and Populists in North Carolina, by a co-operative movement in 1894, defeated the Democrats and obtained control of the legislature As a result of this combination the Democratic election laws, which the Republicans and Populists claim were fraudulent, were repealed and because of their repeal and for other reasons, I believe that the State is certain to give a handsome plurality for the Republican National ticket

"A hot canvass is being carried on and Mr. Clark, the Democratic nominee, and Mr Guthrie, the Populist nominee for Governor, are each anxious to be elected In my opinion the legislature will be Republican and United States Senator Pritchard will be re elected to the Senate"

GOLD PAYMENTS

New York, Sept 7 A Wichita, Kas, special says The Eastern mortgage holders are beginning to demand payment in gold in this State and are asking the federal court to enforce their demands The first case in this State in which the demand is specifically made was filed in the United States District Court Saturday and it is said that many smaller suits will soon be brought Anna M Bigelow a wealthy Eastern woman, brought foreclosure proceedings against H S Landis, of Barber county, and asks the court to decree that the amount of the mortgage and accrued interest be paid in gold

Telegraphic Notes

At twenty minutes after one o'clock Sunday morning, Charles Cingaro and Dorman Megrove who murdered Sheriff Rogers in June, were hanged to a rail road bridge less than a quarter of a mile from Glencoe, Minn The deed was done by 100 citizens of McLeod county, who thus expressed their disapproval of Saturday's verdict that Musgrove be confined to State prison for life instead of being sent to the gallows The murder was cold blooded, Rogers being shot while trying to arrest Cingaro and Musgrove for a minor offense

Practically every department of the great Cambria iron works Johnstown, Pa, shut down Saturday night for an indefinite period throwing at least 2,000 men out of employment About 3,000 men will be given a few hours work a week Lack of orders is given as the cause of the suspension

One of the biggest State scandals that has occurred since the days of reconstruction in South Carolina was sprung Saturday night by Governor Evans If his statement is correct, the dispensary system seems to have been a gold mine to those in charge of it

Forest fires are still raging in the vicinity of Oak Point Washington A change in the wind has deflected the flames northward and Oak Point City is now out of danger Benson's logging camp, the largest plant in that section, was destroyed by the fire Saturday night Loss, $40,000 Twenty square miles of timber have been consumed, entailing a loss of nearly half a million dollars The fire is now well back in the forest and logging camps are threatened Settlers have removed their stock and effects to places of safety So far as is known no lives have been lost The country for miles around is covered with a dense cloud of smoke and navigation on the Columbia river is rendered very hazardous

Five Points to Remember

Mr Carlisle, the Democratic Secretary of the Treasury, makes the following points against the free coinage of silver that every voter will do well to preserve

First Not a free coinage country exists in the world to-day that is not on a silver basis.

Second Not a gold standard country exists in the world to-day that does not use silver as money along with gold

Third Not a silver standard country exists in the world to-day that uses any gold as money along with silver

Fourth Not a silver standard country exists in the world to-day that has more than one-third as much money in circulation per capita as the United States has

Fifth Not a silver standard country exists in the world to-day in which the laboring man receives fair pay for his day's labor

GREAT BOOK FREE

When Dr. R V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N Y, published the first edition of his work, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, he announced that after 680,000 copies had been sold at the regular price of $1 50 per copy, the profit on which would repay him for the great amount of labor and money expended in producing it, he would distribute the next half million free As this number of copies has already been sold, he is now distributing, absolutely free, 500,000 copies of this most complete, interesting and valuable common sense medical work ever published—the recipient only being required to mail to him, at the above address, twenty-one (21) cents in one-cent postage stamps to pay for packing and postage only, and the book will be sent by mail. It is a veritable medical library, complete in one volume. It contains over 1000 pages and more than 300 illustrations. The Free Edition is precisely the same as those sold at $1 50 except only that the books are bound in strong manilla paper covers instead of cloth. Send NOW before all are given away.

"We have almost completed our canvass," remarked Chairman Bolster, of the Auburn Republican city committee Saturday morning, "and the returns thus far are very encouraging We shall get out a very large Republican vote and our majority in this city will be a fourth larger than four years ago and I shouldn't be surprised if it was more than that I know of a number of prominent Democrats who are going to vote with us"

Dr Walter Paul, of Boston, son of E S Paul, Esq, of Lewiston, was yachting off Harpswell a few days ago, when a stay on which he put his feet gave way, throwing him into the water He held to the rope, and was pulled in after a thorough ducking, which was also dangerous, as he was under the bow of the boat In the accident his pocketbook, containing between $30 and $40, was washed out of his pocket In a day or two, the honest fishermen of Haskell's Island began discovering greenbacks on the beach One picked up a $10 bill, one a $2 bill, and one a $5 bill, and so on, until upwards of $25 had been found The lost pocketbook was also washed on the same beach The end of it is that the doctor has all but $5 of his lost funds, and the pocketbook in the bargain

Mavroyeni Bey, the ex Turkish minister has gone down to Newport and there is a well founded rumor that he is going to take an American wife and one of the belles of Bar Harbor The young lady mentioned is Miss Belknap, whose father was a high official in the navy Mavroyeni Bey is not, as many suppose, a Turk He is a Greek from Byron's loved land and is one of the most accomplished men in foreign diplomatic circles He doesn't dance but is a scorcher on the wheel Bey is a great social favorite and bade farewell to Bar Harbor for the last time, as he is going to his far East ern home soon

The people at Bar Harbor will be treated to a grand illumination some night this week upon the highest point of land on the Atlantic sea coast—Green mountain, when the historic Green Mountain House will vanish in fire and smoke and there will have disappeared the most picturesque and interesting land mark on the Maine coast. Surrounding this house is a history, and its fall ends a chapter of a somewhat romantic story of Bar Harbor The fire king will eat the wood whereon are engraved the names of some of the most famous politicians, statesmen and financiers of the country, who visited the top of the mountain in former years when that grand financial fiasco the Green Mountain railroad, and its steamer equipment made the place famous For three years the Green Mountain House has been decaying till last year its moral decay was so great the law stepped in and from that day it has been tenantless

The talk about purchasing the Grand Central property at Bar Harbor by the town and turning it into a casino and public place of amusement still progresses A town meeting will probably be called next week.

FUTURE EVENTS IN TURKEY

Important Reports of Recent Conferences Between Czar of Russia and Emperor of Germany

A Berlin despatch says The conferences which have taken place between the Czar and the Emperor and the accompanying Russian and German diplomats, which were at first alleged to be devoid of anything more important than mere ceremonial conversation, are reported to have taken the character of initiating a new concert of power which is to have a bearing of the utmost importance upon future events in Turkey It is not known definitely who originated the proposal, but it is a matter of positive knowledge in Berlin that Prince Hohenlohe, Imperial Chancellor, and Count Von Osten Sacken, Russian ambassador to Germany, are discussing a plan, the purpose of which is to take the Sultan under the tutelage of the ambassadors of the powers in Constantinople, who will be empowered to control the Sultan's selection of ministers, and his appointment of provincial governors.

The settlement of the troubles in Crete upon a basis of European supervision appears to have been the keynote of this scheme, which at least would maintain the nominal integrity of Turkey and for a time enable the powers to escape being dragged into an European war over a division of the spoils of the Ottoman empire Practically the foreign ambassadors are treating Turkey as a government existing wholly upon sufferance, but they do not take the responsibility which ought to be associated with the situation Only bare proposals have been heard of outside of the circle which is formulating the scheme, but the plan is doubtlessly full of difficulties in the way of its working smoothly

One thing is certain, that is both the Kaiser and the Czar are convinced they can no longer rest content upon mere diplomatic remonstrances to the Porte It is well understood that family influences upon the Czar at Copenhagen and similar influences upon the Kaiser at Balmoral have become insistent beyond precedent in favor of effective stoppage of the horrors in Turkey These influences, it is believed, may have been most potent of all in determining the two emperors upon the course it is now proposed to pursue

Diplomatic advices from Constantinople are such as to cause well grounded fears here that very much worse things than have already occurred in Constantinople may happen in that city before the ambassadors are able to arrange for armed intervention to suppress the disorders; that the Sultan's palace clique, learning that the Sultan's reign is about to cease, may organize a massacre upon a much larger scale than heretofore, which will involve many other persons than the Armenians as victims.

Reports that the British, French and Italian warships in Turkish waters have been reinforced while the German warships have not, have excited a widespread feeling of discontent which is being freely expressed in newspapers, regardless of their political bias.

Despite the activity of other powers in augmenting their naval strength in Turkish waters, the Admiralty of Germany have up to this time taken no steps to increase the strength and number of German war vessels there, but now, urgently goaded by the utterances of [illegible] something, they [illegible]

RESULT OF SELF INTEREST

Jones and Stewart the Free Silver Leaders, were Gold Men in 1874—They are Now Silver Men from Selfish Motives

On April 1 1874, Senator Jones, of Nevada, said "Does this Congress mean now to leave entirely out of view and discard forever a standard of value? And what but gold can be that standard? What other thing on earth possesses the requisite qualities? * * * Gold is the articulation of commerce It is the most potent agent of civilization. It is gold that has lifted the nations from barbarism

"It is the common denominator of values. It makes possible the classification of labor and the interchange of commodities. Gold has intervened in bargains made between men since the dawn of civilization, and it has never failed to faithfully fulfill its part as the universal agent and servant of mankind. * * * The value of gold is not affected by the stamp of the government "

On June 11, 1874, he said "I am opposed to any proposition, come in whatever form it may that attempts to override what God Himself has made for money. I believe the sooner we come down to a purely gold standard the better it will be for the country."

Senator Stewart, of Nevada, in the same debate on June 12 said "Sir, the laboring man and the producer is entitled to have his produce and his labor measured by the same standard of the world that measures your national debt. * * * Give him such a standard, give him such money as you require from him. You require it from the producer. You require from the laboring man gold to pay the interest on your national debt, which is right, which cannot be avoided if you mean to save national honor; but then give him the same money with which to pay that debt. * * *

"The question will never be settled until you determine the simple question whether the laboring man is entitled to have a gold dollar if he earns it, or whether you are going to cheat him with something else. That is the gist of the whole thing. Everybody has to say that the laboring man was entitled to a good dollar. That was fought over [illegible] will [illegible] again, and [illegible] party [illegible] There have been a great many battles fought against [illegible]

CITY AND VICINITY.

Bath merchants protest against political rallies Saturday evenings on the ground that they interfere with business which otherwise is especially good on those evenings Considering the interest the people take in political matters this year we have no doubt the Saturday night trade is somewhat affected

The recent cold weather has brought out the fall overcoat and fires are now a necessity in the evenings Summer goods of all kinds are displayed at very low prices flies are disappearing fast, the visitors are leaving for their city homes, the iceman forgets to cut off the small piece of the "hard water" on his visits, and on all sides can be noticed that winter is fast approaching

Those who would like to test some new receipt not infrequently find themselves perplexed to accurately do the measuring and weighing required This schedule of equivalents will in such cases be found very helpful Wheat flour, one pound is one quart, Indian meal, one pound two ounces are one quart, butter, when soft one pound is one quart, loaf sugar, when broken, one pound is one quart, ten eggs are one pound, flour, four pecks are one bushel sixteen large teaspoonfuls are one pint eight large teaspoonfuls are half a gill, two gills are one pint, two pints are one quart, four quarts are one gallon, one common sized tumbler hold half a pint, a common size wine glass holds half a gill, a teacup holds one gill, a large wineglass holds one gill, a table spoonful is half an ounce, sixty drops are equal to one teaspoonful four teaspoonfuls are equal to one tablespoonful

Lewiston Journal Do you want to know where you can find good living in Maine? asked a man much given to country travel "For more than thirty years I have been through and through Maine, straight through, crisscross and sidewise, I like good living, but I do not go to the hotels to find it It is to be had at the farm houses all through the State, as nice rooms as good beds, and as good food or better than the hotels can give They are usually ready to keep you, rather glad of the chance if you are lively enough to break the monotony of their every day quiet life by your news and gossip and your stories of experience All farm house are not of this excellent sort, far from it It is a matter in which you have to depend on a judicious selection I think from success in the matter that I can tell from the outside of a farm yard and buildings whether it is a safe place to tie up to for a meal or to step over night With their fruit their preserved thing and with field and garden to cull from together with the meats the farms afford the farmers wives set tables that will often compare with the best to be found in the villages and cities

ALL ABOARD FOR ETNA.

Great Mass Meeting To-day at the Camp Ground.

There will be a great mass meeting at Etna Camp Ground this afternoon at half-past two o'clock. The speakers are Senator Frye, General Grosvenor and Hon. John S. Wise. It would be hard indeed to get abler speakers on the same platform. The meeting is bound to be a great success. All trains will stop at the camp ground and half fare tickets will be sold. Quite a delegation will go from Bangor. It will be possible to leave here on the 1.40 p. m. train and return at half-past six. Fare for the round trip 70 cents. All aboard for the great meeting of the campaign. Those who miss it will regret it.

The Water Board held a regular meeting yesterday afternoon but no special business was transacted.

At Bucksport yesterday there arrived the schooner N. E. Symond from Grand Banks, N. F., with a full fare of cod.

The weather came out warm and summer-like yesterday after the rain of Sunday and the cool weather of the past week.

The annual Hersey excursion of the Bangor Universalist society will occur on Thursday, September 10th. The party will go to Island Park, in Fairfield, by the 7 o'clock train. Tickets may be secured on the cars.

Quite a number from this city will attend the Orrington fair, which opens today for three days. There will be many attractions, chief among which is a baby show. There will be ball games each day during the fair.

A portrait of the late Sheriff William F. Reed, who was for years city marshal of Bangor, has been presented to the police by Mrs. Reed and it hangs in a prominent position in the guard room. It is a good likeness.

Messrs. Clarence L. Chapman and Fred Thompson have returned home from Northport where they have been conducting the Northport Hotel during the summer. The season has been a very satisfactory one.

The funeral of the late Mr. Noyes Ames was held yesterday afternoon and many friends attended the services. Rev. E. F. Pember officiated and Mr. Abel Hunt had charge of the arrangements. The interment was at Pine Grove, on the Hammond street road.

The work of laying the rails for the Maine Central double track has been completed to a point below the Great Works station, and the road bed is being ballasted. To allow room for the laying of the double track near the hill on the main road leading into Great Works, the street is being widened.

The Knights of Columbus will institute a council at Lubec soon, Calais council conferring the first and second degrees. Ten days later Grand Knight John F. Crowley of the Bangor council will go to Lubec and will exemplify the third degree upon the members and will install the officers of the new lodge.

Willis Newcomb has returned to Bangor from Lakeside camp grounds. He met with a painful accident at Lakeside. He was cutting wood near his cottage, and in some way the axe glanced from the wood and cut his foot very badly. He was taken to Oakland, where the wound was dressed, and he was at once sent to his home in Bangor.

It is expected that a large number will go on the B. & A. railroad excursion to-day to Katahdin Iron Works. A special train will leave Bangor lower station at 7.05 a. m., Exchange street 7.10, Orono 7.29 and Oldtown 7.45, arrive at Katahdin Iron Works at 9.25. Tickets will be sold for $1 the round trip from Bangor and Oldtown and all intermediate points and will be on sale at the ticket office.

Foot Ball Notes.

The candidates for the High School foot ball team are requested to meet at the Common this afternoon at three o'clock.

The candidates for the Bowdoin 'varsity team will report at Brunswick next Thursday.

Mr. Harry O. Robinson, of Bangor, Tufts, '93, has concluded negotiations with the University of Texas for the position of foot ball coach. Mr. Robinson's reputation as a coach is already extended, he having directed the athletics at the University of Missouri during the season of '93-'94. Mr. Robinson is now with a prominent patent attorney in Boston. His offer from the Texas University is a large one, and his ten weeks' stay there will undoubtedly result in great aid to the team. He will probably leave Boston September 11, and proceed to Galveston by steamer from New York. He expects to return some time in December, when he will resume his present business position.

Mr. Fred G. Folsom, of Oldtown, has returned home from Ellsworth and started Monday for Colorado to fill his engagement as coach for the Colorado University foot ball team. Mr. Folsom will not return home but will go from Colorado directly to Ann Arbor University in Michigan, where he will study law, entering the University January first.

Tyler Family Reunion.

The first general annual family reunion of the Tyler family was held at North Andover Center, Mass., in the Unitarian church on Wednesday, September 2nd. At the election of officers Prof. M. C. Tyler, of Cornell University, was chosen president, and Gen. H. L. Mitchell, of Bangor, one of the vice presidents. The family motto upon the coat of arms is "Spes Mea in Deo."

There were about 150 at the reunion and most of those in attendance are descended from Job Tyler, who settled in Andover about 1640. The Tylers are known to have existed as far back as 1036 B. C. The reunion was called to order by Maj. W. N. Tyler, of Malden, Mass., and prayer was offered by Rev. C. L. Noyes, of North Andover. Prof. M. C. Tyler was chosen permanent chairman. The address of welcome was made by Maj. Tyler.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Have Field and Track Sports Monday Afternoon,

And Work the Third Degree in The Evening.

The Knights of Columbus from Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New Hampshire, New York and different places in Maine, some 500 in number, who are the guests of the Bangor and Orono councils, they having arrived here Sunday, found the weather conditions yesterday in great contrast to those of Sunday and all were correspondingly happy.

It was a bright, warm sunshiny day and enabled the day's programme to be perfectly carried out. In the forenoon the visitors were shown about the city and entertained at A. O. H. Hall on Main street. Special pains were taken by the Bangor and Orono Knights that every visitor was well taken care of and made to have a good time.

In the afternoon a long procession of red-ribboned Knights was formed on Main street and headed by the Bangor Band, the line of march was taken up for Maplewood Park to hold the field and track sports. It was on the programme to have these sports at Orono, but it was found that the grounds there were too wet after the heavy rain of Sunday, so Maplewood Park was decided upon as the place.

The sports were immediately begun after the arrival at the park and they furnished an afternoon of interest and fun. The result of the contests was as follows:

One hundred yard dash—John O'Brien, of Portland, 1st; F. F. Driscoll, of Portland, 2nd; Terrence Driscoll, of Portland, 3rd.

Fat men's race—Martin Good, of Calais, 1st; J. J. Dorson, of Portland, 2nd; J. J. Sheehan, Everett, Mass., 3rd.

Potato race—L. McKenzie, Orono, 1st; J. Kearns, Boston, 2nd; F. Magner, Portland, 3rd.

Sack race—Joseph Gibbons, Bangor, 1st; Guy Nichols, Winterport, 2nd; Frank Whalen, Portland, 3rd.

The ball game between the Massachusetts and Maine teams was won by the former 4 to 3. Messrs. P. J. Feeney, of Bangor, and T. J. Welsh, of Portland, were the umpires.

The "horse race" was postponed on account of a protest against a horse having a record lower than the race called for. This was an amusing feature.

In the evening at A. O. H. Hall the State District Deputy of Massachusetts, James F. Cavanaugh, District Deputy Grand Knight of Auburn Council, assisted by John J. Sheehan, State Warden, of Massachusetts, worked the third degree upon 60 candidates, mostly from Bangor, Orono and a few from Massachusetts and places in Maine.

A social session followed the degree work.

Some of the Knights left last evening for home and the others will leave today by rail and steamboat. The occasion has been a very successful one. The Bangor and Orono Knights were much pleased to receive a visit from the Knights from other States and they in turn expressed themselves as having been given a most enjoyable time.

EFFECTS OF THE STORM.

Washout and Danger of Logs Going Astray.

The heavy storm of Sunday was the worst experienced here for a long time and considerable damage was done. The amount of water which fell is almost a record breaker. Detective G. W. Harriman measured it from the water in a hogshead a short distance away from his house on Larkin street and found it to be exactly 5⅜ inches.

There was a big rise in the river yesterday from the rain fall and the lumbermen feared for their logs which are in the up river booms. Mr. Henry B. Foster was at Costigan yesterday and found that at 1 p. m. the water had risen forty inches since the rain of Sunday. As there had been a rise from Friday and Saturday of ten inches it made a total rise of fifty inches. The water was then coming up at the rate of 2½ inches an hour.

Men were busily engaged yesterday in putting lines on the logs and it was hoped that the logs would be held in place and not be carried away by the flood. There is a very large quantity of logs there, belonging to numerous lumbermen.

There was a rise of two feet of water at the water works dam yesterday morning.

A number of land slides were caused in different parts of the city and many cellars partially filled with water.

At the gas house a large amount of hustling had to be done. The water came rushing into the buildings with such great force that the fires in the furnaces were all put out and the water stood to the depth of eight inches on the floors. In one building 30 casks of lime were stored but through the efforts of the workmen it was prevented from catching fire.

A small bridge at the alms house was floated out to the Hampden road and the sidewalk in front of the alms house was washed away.

A report was received in Bangor of the washing away of the foundation of the Hampden bridge, between the upper and lower villages, but up to Monday afternoon passing was possible though dangerous over the structure. It is understood that it will be rebuilt at once.

A report also came to this city that the small bridge at Bald Hill Cove was gone or badly damaged. On Sunday afternoon the bridge was so much under water that a man coming to this city from Winterport was forced to get across it on foot and hire a team on the farther side to bring him to this city.

Damage by Freshet at Winterport.

A Winterport correspondent writes that the big storm of Sunday did a great deal of damage in that town and vicinity, there being a big freshet. The Bald Hill Cove bridge was carried away and mail was taken across Monday forenoon by a boat. The Rankin brook bridge was damaged and the Cole brook bridge was also damaged. There was some settling of the earth over the water mains and crews are putting them in shape again. There were many holes in the roads.

Base Ball Notes.

News has made only one error in 13 games.

Nick Wise made his 10th home run Friday.

New Bedford gave Weithoff the worst pounding Friday he has had this year.

Brockton has won six games in Pawtucket and Pawtucket has not won a game in Brockton.

The Augusta-ball River series resulted 11 games to 4 in favor of the latter. New Bedford won the Bangor series, 8 games to 4.

REPUBLICAN CLUB MEETING.

Brief But Effective Addresses by Col. Stanley Plummer, Mr. C. T. Hawes and Col. I. K. Stetson.

The regular meeting of the Eastern Maine Republican Club held at the club rooms, West Market square, last evening was made an interesting occasion through the addresses delivered by Col. Stanley Plummer, of Dexter, and Mr. C. T. Hawes and Col. I. K. Stetson, of this city.

The addresses were brief and pointed and effective arguments for protection and sound money and the audience which filled the room gave frequent and hearty applause.

President John M. Oak presided and after calling attention to the big mass meeting to be held at Etna to-day presented Mr. C. T. Hawes as the first speaker.

Mr. Hawes in beginning his remarks said that when the Chicago convention sold the Democratic party for 16 pieces of silver it took a contract which it was wholly unable to carry out and it has introduced a new issue into the campaign—the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. The Republican platform on the other hand declares for the present gold standard until such time as there may be an international agreement for bi-metallism.

Mr. Hawes then referred to such false statements by the free silver advocates as that there is less money per capita now than in 1873 and that the price of gold has doubled. Mr. Hawes then went on to show that the claim that with free coinage of silver, silver would be raised in price to a parity with gold, was not borne out by experience as demonstrated in Russia and Austria. Cheap money from free coinage would destroy our credit abroad and free coinage would only benefit the silver mine owners. It is the mission of the Republican party to maintain the credit of the United States.

Col. Stanley Plummer, of Dexter, was the next speaker and he spoke of the prosperity which the country enjoyed four years ago under the Republican policy of protection. Then came the change when the American people went back upon the administration which gave them their greatest prosperity and gave the government into the hands of those pledged to the reversal of Republican principles with disastrous results. The demagogues were proven to be false at that time but they are again to be found doing business at the old stand trying to deceive the people but on new lines.

In 1892 it was free trade; now it is free silver. The platform of 1896 is infinitely worse as it is a surrender to Populism and a concession to the doctrines of socialism and anarchy. The best Democrats have repudiated the platform and more than 200 leading Democratic papers are in open opposition to it. Col. Plummer believed that this sound money Democratic movement would help the Republican party.

Regarding the free coinage of silver he asked who would be benefited by it and replied that it would be the silver mine stock owners alone. He said that instead of the workingmen being benefited by free coinage of silver it would press a heavier crown of thorns into the brow of labor. Col. Plummer showed how the hard times are due to the Democratic tinkering of the tariff and concluded by saying that to restore prosperity we must vote down this silver heresy and put on guard McKinley and Hobart.

Col. I. K. Stetson was the last speaker. He said that the entire country was looking to Maine to see what her verdict would be. He said that he had traveled in Northern Maine and had conversed with Governor Cleaves and he candidly believed that there would be a large Republican majority. He was pleased to see the desire of the people for information, their desire to do their full duty and their realization of the menace of the Chicago platform.

The banks have large deposits as the people and the bankers do not care to invest, owing to the lack of confidence, but restore this confidence and we should see this money flowing out into new industries. Col. Stetson said that we hear of the free silver element as increasing and he had been told that he would find it in Aroostook; but he had been there and found it was not so. He believed that everybody, irrespective of party, should stand shoulder to shoulder for sound money.

Regarding the statement by the silver advocates that the countries on a silver basis are the prosperous ones, he showed that it is not so and quoted the low prices of bonds in Mexico and Brazil, silver countries, as compared with the high prices in gold standard countries. He spoke of the general desire for a gold standard and said that the silver advocates wish it everywhere but on the stump. The Republican party believes not only in sound money, but in a tariff for the protection of American labor and industries.

The meeting was closed with three hearty cheers for the speakers and three more for McKinley.

"POP CONCERT."

An Enjoyable Social Event at City Hall.

The "Pop Concert" at City Hall last evening for the benefit of the Kindergarten Association was a very successful and pleasant event. The attendance was large, the floor being covered with dancers and the gallery well filled with spectators, and all thoroughly enjoyed the evening's programme of music, dance and refreshments.

The stage was handsomely decorated with flowers, palms, etc. About the sides of the hall were arranged tables at which delicious refreshments were bounteously served by an efficient corps of waiters.

The first of the evening, from 8 to 9, was devoted to the following concert programme, each number of which was splendidly rendered and warmly applauded:

Overture, "Light Cavalry" .... Suppe
Orchestra.
Song, "Patria" .... Mattei
Miss Edith Bradford.
Ballet music from "Daphne" ....
Orchestra.
Violin Solo, "Gypsey Dance" .... Nachez
Dr. Wasgatt.
Solo, "For All Eternity" .... Maschcroni
Mrs. Whittredge.
(Violin obligato by Dr. Wasgatt.)
Broadway types from "Black Sheep" ....
Orchestra.
Song, "September" .... Charlton
Miss Edith Bradford.
"Alabama Patrol" .... Haynor
Orchestra.

After the concert dancing was in order and it was greatly enjoyed. Pullen's orchestra, led by Dr. O. E. Wasgatt, furnished most excellent music. Mr. Carl P. Dennett was floor manager and Messrs. W. W. Palmer, George Stetson, William Veazie and Charles Stetson were aids.

AMUSEMENTS.

At The Norombega.

The Mora company began its second week's engagement at The Norombega very successfully last night when "The Danites" was presented with good effect. To-night "Dad's Girl" will be the play. Popular prices prevail.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Grand Rally at Presque Isle—A Party of Campaigners—Fine Outlook in State.

A correspondent writes that there was a rousing Republican rally in Presque Isle Saturday night. The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, many standing throughout the entire evening, while still others were unable to get inside the hall. George H. Smith, Esq., opened the meeting and called Hon. Charles F. Daggett to the chair. Mr. Daggett delighted the audience with a brilliant and effective exposure of the financial absurdities of the Democratic speaker the previous evening. His remarks were in a vein of delicious satire that was highly enjoyed by the large assemblage. He then gracefully introduced Congressman Boutelle who received a most cordial greeting.

He discussed the leading issues and was frequently interrupted with applause as he pointed out the sophistries of the Populist argument. The meeting was one of great enthusiasm. At its conclusion the Presque Isle Cornet Band tendered Mr. Boutelle a serenade at the hotel which he acknowledged with deep gratification, complimenting the band upon its skill. He passed Sunday in Presque Isle, came to this city on the noon train and left for Cherryfield, where he spoke last night, on the afternoon train.

Republican Campaigners.

There was a jolly party of Republican campaigners on the Flying Yankee yesterday noon. Governor Cleaves, accompanied by his brother, T. P. Cleaves, Esq., of Washington, came through from Calais. The Governor and Hon. F. A. Powers addressed a splendid meeting in Calais Friday night. Saturday night the Governor was at Princeton with Senator Hale where they had a fine meeting. Governor Cleaves is a great campaigner and is much gratified at the earnestness of the Republicans. He predicts a grand victory next Monday.

On the same train was Hon. V. B. Dolliver, of Iowa. Mr. Dolliver has been doing most effective work for the Republicans of this State. He spoke in Eastport Saturday evening to a large audience, drove to Calais Sunday with his wife, who has accompanied him on his trip over the State, and went through to Auburn where he was to speak last evening. At Lincoln Hon. S. W. Matthews and Col. Stanley Plummer boarded the train and came to Bangor. They addressed a large meeting at Lee Saturday night. Friday night Mr. Matthews was at Enfield and Col. Plummer at Lincoln. They report excellent meetings.

Col. Plummer spoke to the Republican Club in this city last evening and Mr. Matthews goes to Aroostook this morning to complete the week. Hon. O. V. Tousley, of Minnesota, was also on the train. He was mistaken in his appointments and went to Lincoln where he speaks to-night. He returned to this city and filled an engagement in Hampden last evening. At Oldtown Hon. W. W. Thomas and Congressman Boutelle, both of whom had been speaking in Aroostook, also came on the train, thus making quite a party. Mr. Thomas went to the western part of the State to fill engagements and Mr. Boutelle went to Cherryfield.

Vanceboro Aroused.

A representative of THE WHIG found the Republicans of Vanceboro very enthusiastic over the outlook. Last Thursday they threw two campaign banners to the breeze and listened to excellent addresses from Hon. R. W. Shaw and Don. A. H. Powers, Esq. Both speakers aroused great enthusiasm. Friday evening they were in Danforth where another big meeting was held and for which music was furnished by the Danforth Band.

The campaign is looking well in every section of the State and on Monday Maine will give a grand verdict for protection and honest money.

Fine Rally at Hampden.

There was a fine rally at Hampden Town Hall last evening, the hall being filled with earnest Republicans gathered to listen to the able speech of Hon. O. V. Tousley, of Minnesota. Maj. W. W. Emerson, chairman of the town committee, called the meeting to order and Mr. George W. Smith was called upon to preside, which he did in an easy and appropriate manner, making a few remarks before introducing Mr. Tousley. The latter was received with applause and was frequently interrupted by demonstrations of approval from his audience at the telling points made. He made an excellent impression and his talk will have a good effect. His talk was principally confined to the silver question. Hampden Republicans are earnest and wide awake and will give a good account of themselves. The meeting closed with hearty cheers for the speaker and the candidates.

Prof. Rogers will speak at Hampden next Saturday evening.

The Finest Yet.

The B. & A. people announce another great excursion trip, this time to Ashland in the heart of Aroostook and the first excursion party from Bangor to that newly opened section which is having such a boom just now.

On Thursday, September 17, excursions will be run to Ashland from Bangor, Orono, Oldtown, Dover, Foxcroft, Guilford, Houlton, Fort Fairfield, Presque Isle and Caribou, arriving at Ashland from the north at 11.15 and from the south at 12.30.

At 2 p. m. a great mass meeting will be held in the interest of the young people's movement.

The speakers will be Rev. E. M. Taylor, D. D., of Boston, president of the New England Epworth League; Miss Cora B. Bickford, president of the Maine Y. P. S. C. E., who has just been re-elected to that important place; Rev. J. M. Frost, an honored ex-president of the Maine Y. P. S. C. E., and Rev. Albert E. Kingsley, the popular and successful pastor of the First Baptist church of Bangor. The list of speakers assures those who go one of the finest young people's rallies ever held in Eastern Maine. Trains leave Ashland for the South at 4 30 p. m. and for the North at 5 p. m.

This will allow the participants a most enjoyable trip into this interesting section at the most beautiful season of the year and return the same day.

The fare for the round trip is only $1.50—about one-quarter regular fare. One of the pleasing features of this trip will be the option, to those in the southern series of towns, of substituting Norcross and the Twin Lakes for Ashland. Those who select Norcross as the end of their trip, will have from 8 to 10 hours to spend in this great game center of the world in its autumn woods or on its lakes. The fare will be $1.50 and the trip will be made on the same trains. The details of the excursion and the conduct of the great meeting at Ashland have been put in the hands of Rev. B. [illegible] Foss, of Bangor.

BOARD OF TRADE.

Special Meeting on Monday Afternoon.

A special meeting of the Board of Trade was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock with President C. S. Pearl in the chair. The records of the last meeting were read by Secretary E. M. Blanding and were approved.

The call for the meeting of the State Board of Trade at Portland was read and a committee of three was chosen to select a list of delegates.

The following delegates and alternates to the State Board meeting were chosen:

Delegates—C. S. Pearl, Henry Lord, H. L. Mitchell, E. M. Blanding, I. K. Stetson, J. F. Gerrity, George Varney and C. V. Lord.

Alternates—W. P. Dickey, Edward Conners, J. M. Oak, J. S. Jenness, G. W. Merrill, J. P. Finnegan, Julius Waterman, L. C. Tyler, G. F. Cameron.

Secretary Blanding, of the fish hatchery committee, reported that the deed for between four and five acres of land containing 1,000 square feet on Schoolhouse brook, a tributary of Phillips lake, had been forwarded, together with a sketch by City Engineer Vickery, to the Fish and Game Commissioners, the land to be donated to the State provided a fish hatchery and feeding station be established there within a reasonable time.

It is expected that a dam will be built there and other work done the present fall.

Gen. H. L. Mitchell presented the subject of the model of the proposed statue of the late ex-Vice President Hannibal Hamlin and spoke of the desirability of having it exhibited, when completed, at the Board of Trade rooms. The matter was referred to the committee on rooms.

A GREAT HISTORIC TABLET.

Professor Petrie Finds a Record of the Crushing of Israel by Egypt.

I was permitted to excavate along a part of the ruin strewn desert at Thebes and to examine the sites of temples which stand there. On these few furlongs I found that there had been seven temples of the kings of the eighteenth and nineteenth dynasties, about 1450-1150 B. C. Most of these I entirely cleared out, the largest piece of all—the great buildings around the Ramesseum—being the clearance of the Egyptian research account worked by Mr. Quibell. Each site gave us some return in information or objects, but the most valuable of the sites, as it proved, was one of the least inviting. A field of stone chips showed where the funeral temple of Merenptah had stood, and, left in the ruins, I found the great granite tablet bearing the long inscription of Merenptah about his Libyan war and his Syrian war and naming Israel.

This tablet is over 10 feet high, over 5 feet wide and over a foot thick, of one flawless block of very fine grained granite, or rather syenite. It was first cut by one of the most sumptuous kings of Egypt, Amenhotep III, brilliantly polished as flat and glassy as a mirror and engraved with a scene of the king offering to Amen, the god of Thebes, and an inscription of about 3,000 hieroglyphs recording his offerings and glorifying the god. His son Akhenaten, who strove after a higher faith, erased all figures and inscriptions of Amen, and so effaced most of his father's fine carving on this great tablet. This, however, was all re-engraved by Seti I about 50 years later, as a restoration. Then, some two centuries after it had been erected in the temple of Amenhotep III, Merenptah cast an envious gaze on the splendid stone and stole it for his own purpose.

Not taking the trouble to rework it he simply built the face of it into his own wall and engraved on the comparatively rough back of the block. At the top he figured a scene of the king offering to Amen, and below an inscription very nearly as large as that of Amenhotep III on the other side. The painting of the sculptured figures still remains as fresh as on the day it was done, for, as the tablet fell face forward when the temple was destroyed, the side belonging to Merenptah lay downward, while that of Amenhotep III was uppermost.

In the ruins, then, amid the fragments of columns and foundations, heaped over with a foot or two of stone chips, this grand block had lain since about the time of the Trojan war. All Greek history, Roman and mediæval—the prophets, Christianity and Islam—have swept along while this was waiting unsuspected, with its story of the wars of Pharaoh of the Hard Heart and his crushing of Israel.—Professor Flinders Petrie in Century.

AMERICANIZED CHINAMEN.

How Yankee Sign Painters Sophisticate Oriental Names.

It is rather amusing to note the curious disguises under which Chinese names appear on the laundry signboards so thickly scattered through our cities. It is the natural result of the Chinaman's imperfect acquaintance with English and the sign painter's absolute ignorance of Chinese.

For instance, John goes to the painter and explains—"Want paint washee washee."

"All right. What's your name?" asks the painter.

"Name Cha Li Ling," replies the oriental, and down it goes on the sign, "Charlie Ling."

It is surprising the number of these Charlies who wear pigtails, but it always come to pass in the way just indicated.

One sign painter did still better. The applicant gave his name as Cha Ku Li. This in due time appeared on a square red board as follows: "Chas. Q. Lee, First Class Chinese Laundry."

It is often alleged that the Chinese never become truly American, but here was a Chinaman pretty thoroughly Americanized, one would fancy. It was from the bumptious sign painter, however, that he got his naturalization papers.—Boston Post
